Schedules

Scheduling options are listed on the Fall Class Schedule tab on our website. You may choose which scheduling option works best for you, pending availability. Once enrolled, students will remain in the same class throughout the entire dance season (September - May). Dancers should try to avoid missing more than six (6) classes in each discipline throughout the dance season.

Class Attire

Visit the SHOP tab on our website to view our online store for your dance wear needs this season. Dancers should wear a leotard or fitted clothing, tights with optional shorts or skirts for ballet, tap, jazz, acro, and contemporary class. Acro dancers should not wear tights to class or footless. Hip Hop students should wear loose fitted clothing that has not been worn to school. All dance shoes are to be purchased either at the studio or through our online store. Dancers must have the correct shoes for our recital at the end of the year if they participate in the last session.

Costume and Recital Fee Payments

Recital costume payments are due by November 3, 2023. When you register, it will be placed on your account and will automatically be charged to the card on file on November 3rd. You are welcomed to go into your account and pay the charge anytime before then. All late payments will incur a $5.00 per week late fee. We appreciate your on time payment to ensure all of the classes' costumes will be ordered on time. If you wish, we do accept monthly payments towards your costume starting in September. Costumes and tights are non-refundable. The recital fee ($35) goes towards the end of the year recital video. It will be charged on April 27th and is required to participate in the show. You will receive a link to the recital video that you can share with friends and family. Your dancers will also receive a recital pin to commemorate the season.
